We will use the little blue book: 'Prayers for the use of the Church during the coronavirus outbreak', which many of you already have. If you plan to join in SAS and don't have one please email Revd. Sally and we will get one to you in good time.

Messy Church continues this Friday (4th Sept) at 4pm on Zoom. All are welcome to join in as we think about Messy Bible. For a craft pack, please email Revd. Sally by Tuesday evening.

Music News: Adam Went, our Director of Music, writes: As many of you know, my weekday employment takes up a lot of my time, working long hours and often being on call out of hours. Therefore, I have decided, with the agreement of Sally, and approval of the PCC Standing Committee, to use part of my salary to employ an Assistant Organist to play for two Sundays a month and for our larger services and festivals. This, therefore, will give me the opportunity to conduct the choir.

Therefore, I am really pleased and excited to announce that Tim Muggeridge will be joining us at the beginning of September, with his first Sunday being on 13th September. Immediately after our 10am service, Tim will give a brief 30 minute recital and also talk to us a little about himself. Please do come along and helping to give Tim a warm welcome to St. Luke's. There will be a retiring collection which we will give to Tim.

As we are still not allowed to sing as a congregation, from 13th September, we will have gentle organ music in the lead up to the service, and a nice rousing voluntary to set us off on our way!

I am really looking forward to working with Tim and I would ask that you pray for him, as he starts his journey with us at St Luke's, which I hope will be a very long journey!

Chalice gift: Roger Clarke has kindly offered to purchase a pair of chalices for the church in memory of his parents. The faculty notice for this is currently on the church porch noticeboard.

Inclusive Church news: the annual Inclusive Church lecture took place last week and will be posted on the website soon – see <http://www.inclusive-church.org/events/the-inclusive-church-lecture>

News from Quench: From 1st September, Quench Christian Bookshop will be open 6 days a week, Monday - Saturday. Please note that Opening Times will be 10.30am - 3pm. If you need any help outside out of these hours, please email Ali on admin@quenchshops.com. Thank you for your support over the last few months.
