

Thinking it through

Acts 9:31-43

Peter did two miracles to prove that he was Jesus' true messenger who should be listened to.

This showed us that we can trust the teachings about Jesus throughout the New Testament even though it's not Jesus himself doing the teaching.

When Jesus did these kinds of miracles he could simply speak. What did Peter do that was different?

How did the miracles that Peter performed help the people trust his message about Jesus? How does it help us trust Peter's message?

Do you see God in your every day life? Take some time and marvel at his creation, tiny flowers with detail, birds that fly, mountains so high. What sounds can you hear maybe birds, other animals, other people.

God loves to hear our voices, whether in prayer or praise.
