

Thinking it through

When we are outside we have to have space away from others, this was so different for Zacchaeus who was squashed and pushed by the crowd around him. What can you notice in the space around you as you are outside, how would this be different from what Zacchaeus felt. Enjoy the freedom of not being squashed by a crowd.

Have a chat with someone about these questions.

What would it have been like to be Zacchaeus?

What happened to change things for Zacchaeus?

Can you think of ways that we are like Zacchaeus?

Here are some songs that remind us of the story of Zacchaeus and also that we are loved by Jesus.

Remember what we learned today.

Jesus knows us and all that we have done, and He loves us.

Jesus can change us

Jesus is worth everything
