

Thinking it through

Where do you spend time talking to God? Some people like to pray outside where they can be reminded of what God has created. Others have a place in their home or a time of day, maybe bedtime, when they talk with God. This week maybe you could try something different when you talk with God.

Both the Pharisee and the tax collector prayed, so can you remember why the Pharisee got it wrong?

Have a chat about

Did God love the Pharisee because he kept the rules?

What happens when, like the tax collector, we get things wrong?

Below are some songs, one reminding us of how easily we can talk to God. The others hopefully are encouragements to draw close to Him.

Prayer is like a telephone

Although we have talked about the prayer Jesus taught and we've looked at how we can't change how much God loves us. Remembering these can help us, but the most important thing is to remember to talk with God (prayer).
