

Tying it together

We are going to be looking at the first few chapters of Joshua in the next few weeks, each week the story will have its own point, but there is a bigger picture and we want to tie the stories together.

This week, Joshua takes on the leadership, that God and Moses had been training him for, with the encouragement to be Strong and courageous. Joshua needed to find that strength through trusting God which wouldn't always be easy. Can you remember the promise God made to Joshua, you can look it up in Joshua 1:5

We may not be asked to be a leader, but we have our own adventures as the situations around us change once again. We can be encouraged by Jesus' words in Matthew 28:20

“And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”
