

Tying it together

We are going to be looking at the first few chapters of Joshua in the next few weeks, each week the story will have its own point, but there is a bigger picture and we want to tie the stories together.

This week we saw the spies go into Jericho; they would need to be strong and courageous just like they had been instructed last week. But we also saw how God had a bigger plan; Rahab hid them, and then told them how frightened the people of Jericho were because they had heard about God. Rahab also wanted to be remembered when the time came, can you remember how she would show where she was when the Israelites came back?

Rahab wasn't an Israelite, yet she believed what God could do and put her trust in Him.

How easy or difficult do we find it to trust God. Speak to Him now to tell Him how things are for you; He loves it when we talk to Him.
