

Tying it together

Can you remember what has been happening with Joshua? In the first week he became the new leader. Can you remember what he was told?¹ Then he sent out the spies and we met a lady who helped them can you remember her name?²

Today's story involved trusting God again. The river would have been full and the water flowing fast, not a good place to cross the river, there wasn't any bridge. And yet we see God involved again as the water stops to let the Israelites across. Can you remember a similar story?³

We don't always see God working miracles in the way he did for Joshua, yet we can be sure that He is working in our lives today.

Consider some of the things God has given you.
