

Thinking it through

At Christmas time it is easy to think about Jesus being the baby in the manger. But even as that tiny baby He was God most High who had come to save us.

Why is it important to remember that Jesus isn't just a man, He is also God?

Have a chat with someone this week, about how you know Jesus and if you can, say what difference knowing Jesus makes.

Find a space where you can be quiet and think about what you feel when you 'ponder in your heart' that the righteous Son of God went through all of this to rescue you?

At Christmas we celebrate because of God's great love for us, these songs might help you to celebrate.
