

Thinking it through

We have all had journey's where it seemed to take forever to get where we are going.

What might have made your journey so long?

Some things to chat about

Things aren't always what they seem,
Although things looked bad for Paul, he had confidence that it would be OK, he was focussing on the promise God had made him in Acts 23:11.

Talk about some of God's promises to each of us.

What's the weather like?

You might want to consider making your own weather station, to see what the weather is like for you, you can find instructions on the website below. Remember God made the rain as well as the sun.

God loves to hear our voices, whether in prayer or praise.

God, you're good to me
