

Thinking it through

Acts 4:1-22

Let us trust and obey Jesus as the only one who gives life forever, even though we may not always be able show that to others.

Why were the Sadducees not happy with Peter and John?
Why did the religious leaders want to stop the news about Jesus spreading?

It can be difficult to talk with people about something they cannot see, why is this. Peter spoke up boldly, what help did he have? What help do you need to speak clearly about what you know of Jesus?

Find out about a country in the world where it is not easy to talk about Jesus. Pray for the people that love Jesus there, that they would know His Holy spirit with them.

God loves to hear our voices, whether in prayer or praise.
