

Thinking it through

God uses ordinary means and seemingly insignificant people to keep his promise to redeem the world through his son, Jesus.

What was Ruth asking Boaz to do? What does the word 'redeem' mean?

Look up Matthew 1:5-6, 16. Who else was part of this line? Why is it so surprising that Ruth is part of his line? What does this show about how God keeps his promise to redeem his people? In what ways can you be part of God's promise-keeping to others? How can this story encourage you when you feel too small or weak to be used by God?

God used Boaz's obedience and an ordinary marriage to keep his promise to rescue the world through Jesus. Think about ordinary things that you do every day which might help others to know about Jesus. Remember to pray for the courage, desire and obedience to do them.

God loves to hear our voices, whether in prayer or praise.
