

Creative Writing

Write a set of instructions for making bunting.

Don't forget to include: what you will need, bullet points, diagrams, imperative verbs (bossy words), lists

Reading

Read your reading book or others that you own or have access to.

www.oxfordowl.co.uk

Class login: class2Uley

Password: owlreading

Phonics/Spelling

Try the attached VE day word search.

Can you spell these words?

Can you look up their meaning in a dictionary?

Can you put these words in alphabetical order?

Could you use them in a sentence?

Handwriting

Please focus this week on perfecting your zigzag letters – v, w, x, z and their capital letters too.

You can write them in different colours, write them large or small, use a paintbrush and water and write them outside, even write them in flour!

Science

World Habitats

Research one of the following four world habitats: the ocean, the Arctic, tropical rainforest, the desert.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zx882hv>

What plants and animals would you find there? Draw a picture to illustrate your findings.

Week commencing 4th May 2020

'The World's a Stage'

Art/DT

Create a string of bunting in red, white and blue, which you can use to decorate your home for VE day on the 8th May.

You could use paper or card or for a 'make do and mend' element, even your old clothes (with permission!)

RE and Values

Thinking of our value of service; reflect on those that served us in the World Wars and fought for our freedom.

Now write a prayer of gratitude and hope.

History/Geography

This year marks the 75th anniversary of VE day. Research why we have VE day and what it celebrates.

Maths

3

Daily Mathletics
Daily Rainbow Maths

Get baking! Ration Cakes – please see attached recipe for more information.

Use your weighing and measuring skills to create ration cakes.

Get code cracking! See attached sheet

PSHE

Life stages – Human – What do I belong to?

Now that you have thought about how you have changed, think about how your family has changed over the years.

Draw a family tree to show the different generations in your family.

Useful websites

www.mathletics.co.uk

www.bbc.co.uk/teach/supermovers

www.gosh.org/power-of-play

Music

'We'll meet again' is a popular second world war song recorded by Dame Vera Lynn in 1942. Listen to a recording of it – there are lots on YouTube. Can you learn some of the lyrics to this song?

Being physical

Jumpstartjonny!

Get moving with a jump start jonny workout or challenge.

<https://www.jumpstartjonny.co.uk/home>