

Where we meet and who we are

The office and mid week activities are based at our building in:
Well Street. MK18 1ET

On a Sunday morning we meet for worship at :
Lace Hill Academy, Catchpin Street,
MK18 7RR

Well Street United Church is an LEP (local ecumenical partnership) of Baptist, Methodist and United Reformed churches. In reality, many of us come from other churches or no church background, but we have felt at home in this church.

As part of our worship we have an offertory box available by the doors of the hall. If you are visiting please feel under no obligation to give.

If you are a regular worshipper please speak to Geoff Morris as to how you can give by Standing Order or online and also about Gift Aid if you are a tax payer.

To receive our weekly Mailchimp ,please ask a Welcomer for a GDPR form so that we can add your details to our mailing list.

Quarterly Church Meeting
Tuesday 21st June 7.30pm

'Abide in me, and I in you.'

At the time of writing, Wendy and I have just come back from the annual Baptist Assembly. This is an annual celebration of the Baptist denomination of which I am a minister.

It's always good to go, and to catch up with many friends, and it was held this year in Bournemouth, which was good. On Sunday morning, the preacher was Revd Alan Donaldson, General Secretary of the European Baptist Federation, which also covers the country of Ukraine, where there are slightly more Baptist Christians than in the UK. Alan gave a stirring message about the disorientating times in which we live, and explored the question, 'How then shall we live?' Speaking from John 15, he pointed out that after the miraculous signs that Jesus performed, came talk of betrayal, denial, death and confusion. Then Jesus says:

'Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.'
(John 15:4, NKJV)

Perhaps more than ever, we need to abide in Jesus, making our home in him. As I listened to the Word, I reflected that maybe the old hymn has got it wrong: 'Abide with me'? Of course, Jesus does live with us by his Spirit, but he does far more than that. For those who are believers in Him, he abides in us!

Alan reported that the Ukrainian Baptists are having to abide in Christ, in twos and threes and larger groups. In adversity, they are reading the Bible together every day for the first time in a generation. They are praying together in community more than ever.

How are we abiding in Christ? How are we reading the Bible and praying together? At Well Street, our life groups offer the opportunity to do that each week. Should you be joining one or committing to attend more often? In our chapels, there are opportunities to meet during the week? Is prayer a part of that?

Jesus says, 'Abide in me, and I in you.' Simultaneously, that challenges and excites me. It is both a command and a promise. I challenge you and myself to take it seriously. When we abide in him, and he in us, God may do more than anything we can ask or imagine.

May God's kingdom come and His will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Tim
