

August News from Bosley.

Unfortunately, the Rose Queen Fete had to be postponed however it will now be held on September the 18th.

The Fell Run did take place on the 10th July and in spite of the short notice 54 runners participated, refreshments were served and a pleasant afternoon was spent. Congratulations to Simon Bailey who won once again.

The court case on the Mill Disaster has been completed. There was apparently not enough evidence to enable the health and safety officers to be found guilty however George Boden, the manager was found guilty and fined £12,000 and the company fined £75,000.

Nicky Ratcliffe was awarded a first class degree in Environmental Science and is at present training groups of Duke of Edinburgh entrants in sailing and they are off the south coast for a week at a time. She will be going up to Scotland in the autumn for her MSc.

The Climate Fightback Challenge takes place on 29th August and Bosley Church will be one of the Staging Posts with refreshments and a game involving food miles. The Methodist Chapel is the other Staging Post in Bosley also with refreshments and an activity. It is expected that the Youth Club will also be participating.
