Slavko and Sanja Hadzic

Slavko and Sanja live and work in Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina. For 17 years (until 2019) Slavko was pastor of the Evangelical Church "Kosevsko Brdo" (Kosevsko Hill), with which St Botolph's is twinned. Slavko and Sanja have two grown up children, Jovana and David. Slavko founded the Association "Good News", volunteers as chairman and evangelist of FEUER (Fellowship of Evangelists at Universities of Europe) and works part-time for Langham Preaching.

Slavko's passions are evangelism and preaching. He is very involved in training evangelists and preachers, and in men's ministry, not just in Bosnia but across the Balkans region.

Sanja is very active in women's ministry, and she is part of the organising board of regional women's conferences, known as "Daughters of the King".

Our SharePlan

The aim is to be able to send a special love-gift to our partners for them to use as they see fit, to enable them to better fulfil the demands of their work. This gift could possibly be used to meet some domestic need, or could provide some support for a project in which they are involved and which needs funds.

How does the SharePlan work?

Church members are invited to take on one or more shares, each share representing the gift of £1 per month for a complete year.
£1 each month = 1 share = £12 per year
£2 each month = 2 shares = £24 per year etc.

About £1500 has been raised each year for one of our link missionaries, in rotation.

If you would like to participate in the Missionary SharePlan in 2025, please complete the reply slip below, and return it to treasurer Geoff Curnock. You may either pay each month, using clearly-labelled envelopes, or you may pay in one lump sum (cash or cheque to St Botolph's PCC, with a note – anonymous if you wish - indicating that the gift is for the SharePlan). Your commitment will end after 12 months, unless you wish to continue.
