

Hi my name is Nathan Young,

I am from Bathgate in Central Scotland.

My parents were brought up Jehovah Witnesses and when I was born my Dad was saved, but my mum was still a JW.

I was carried and taken to the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's witnesses when I was a baby and toddler, but I don't remember it well. My mum wanted me going to the Kingdom Hall and to be brought up there.

When I was two, my mum got saved and came out of the JWs which was a blessing more than once, because when my sister was born just before I turned three, she needed a blood transfusion. She received it and lives today by the grace of God. If my mum hadn't have come out of the JWs, my sister would have never had received one and would have died.

When I was four, I was brought up going to Sunday school and one day in my parents' house I looked up at the wall and saw a text on my parents wall which read:

Ephesians 2:8

"For by grace are ye saved through Faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God."

I went through to my mum who was in the kitchen to ask what it meant, and she told me all about the Lord Jesus and how he died for me, by simple trust in the Lord I accepted Him as my Saviour.

I remember when I first witnessed to someone, I was 5 years old, and I went to the supermarket with my parents and my mum put me on a helicopter which by putting 20p into it, it went about 8 feet into the air and came down again, and there was a boy in another helicopter next to me and when he went up into the air, he shouted "I'm going to Heaven" to which I said to him sternly "Are you saved?" He said "no" I then said "Well then, you are going to Hell not heaven" to which my parents took me away as fast as they could from the on looking parents of the little boy.

My mum has written a book on her testimony on coming out of the Jehovah's Witnesses, it is titled "Now a true true witness for Jehovah" by E W Young which you can purchase in a Christian bookstore in Kilmarnock called Ritchies Christian Media.

I was later baptised when I was 15.

I now preach against the Jehovah Witnesses on my YouTube channel which you can all watch by going to the following link:

I thank the Lord that He saved me, I can't save myself and His grace is sufficient for me in times of trial and testing.

Thank you.

Nathan Young.
