This morning I was waiting for Gill outside the gym when a young lass, obviously a 6th Form student i.e. high school senior walked past. She smiled at me and politely said “Good morning,” to which I responded in like manner. However, I thought this most unusual. Then I remembered that last November, while I was taking part in the church’s open air work, when I had given many Chick tracts to the local high school seniors, one student, a girl, had kindly rewarded me with a jelly baby. See graphic. I believe that was the young lady who greeted me this morning, evidently having remembered me.

We can pray that “the words of the LORD” Exodus 4:28, 24:3, 4, Numbers 11:24, Joshua 3:9, 24:27, 1 Samuel 8:10, 15:1, 2 Chronicles 11:4, 29:15, Psalm 12:6, Jeremiah 36:4, 6, 8, 11, 37:2, 43:1, Amos 8:11 (18 occurrences in all) will do their work in the hearts and minds of these young folk.

“So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it” Isaiah 55:11.

Strictly speaking, I wasn’t supposed to be handing out Chick tracts in that situation. The reason I broke the rules is as follows. See Jack T. Chick on Witnessing www.chick.com/default.asp.

Whatever means we use, rules or no rules, it’s a reminder to use what time we have left “Redeeming the time, because the days are evil” Ephesians 5:16.

“I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work” John 9:4.

Dear Ones in Christ:

As a new Christian, I was shocked. It was 1948, and I had just been saved listening to Charles E. Fuller's Old Fashioned Revival Hour. I ran into some high school buddies at the Church of the Open Door in Los Angeles. I thought they had just gotten saved, too. But then came the surprise.

They told me they had known the Lord since they were 9 and 10 years old. I said, "Jim, when we were playing handball back in High School, why didn't you tell me about Jesus? I could have been killed in New Guinea or in Okinawa, and would have gone straight to hell." He replied, "Jack, we talked it over, whether or not to tell you about Jesus, and decided you would be the last guy on earth to receive Him." I was speechless. I felt betrayed. If I had died, my blood would have been on their hands.

I wonder how many souls I've overlooked and neglected: neighbors, friends, etc. It's an awesome thought. Ezekiel 3:18 says, "When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand." That is an awesome verse.

May God give us a greater burden to reach a dying world, and to remember we will give an account at the Judgment Seat of Christ for what we did down here.

Aliens etc. Evangelism

The other week it was Jelly Babies Evangelism. Today it is Aliens etc. Evangelism as you see. This afternoon I was coming out of the back entrance of the church after having gone in to collect a couple of Bible study question sheets. The answers to those done thus far are here www.timefortruth.co.uk/alan-oreilly/.

See www.clipartbest.com/clipart-KcnreBdcq.

A young man, about 20 I would guess, walked past. From his paint-stained and tattered clothes plus a cap, I'd have guessed that he worked for a car body repair shop. However he stopped and asked me "What is evangelical?" having seen the name of the church on the back entrance. I said it meant that the Lord Jesus Christ died for your sin on the cross, shed His blood for your sin, and rose again to give you eternal life with Him and save you from hell if you'll ask Him to save you.

He then went on for several minutes with a whole raft of questions e.g. did I believe in aliens – see title above, how did the Catholic Church start?, what about the Jehovah's Witnesses and why are there so many different churches etc., punctuated with his own somewhat colourful commentary on those questions.

He never paused long enough to receive a proper answer from me to any of his questions. He had read the Old Testament and possibly the Sermon on the Mount, saying that Jesus had come to do away with the law. I was able to correct him on that but eventually I asked him if he'd ever asked Jesus to save him. He side-stepped that saying he did believe in Jesus and I pointed out that the devils believe in Jesus too (James 2:19) but they're not saved. It has to be heart belief in Jesus, not just head belief and referring to receiving a person into your home, say, cited John 1:12 "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." John 1:12, 6:37 [All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out] were the key scriptures that got me saved back in July 1967.

I asked him that if I could answer all his questions to his satisfaction, would he ask then Jesus to save him? He side-stepped that and went on talking as he'd done before.

He then said he had to get back to work, shook my hand and said it had been good talking to me. I gave him my first name but didn't get his in return. However, I had a King James New Testament in my backpack and gave him that, which he was willing to receive. It's a reminder to carry TBS John's Gospels and Chick tracts with you, which I hadn't been doing but will do now.

The timing was quite precise. If it had been a minute either way, we'd have missed each other. In addition, today was an unusual day. I normally get these question sheets on a Monday morning, not Thursday afternoon.

If there'd been time – or if I'd thought of it – I'd have said "I heard you out for several minutes. Now hear me out for a minute or so" and given him a brief testimony plus reiterating the Gospel and challenging him on asking Jesus to save him.

The episode was a reminder of 1 Peter 3:15 "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear."
