

ELIZABETH II DEI GRA REG FID DEF

198

We brought nothing into this world,
and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

For the love of money is the root of all evil:

which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith,
and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him
should not perish, but have everlasting life.
