

Luke 6: 37 – 42.

Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. He also told them this parable: “Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher. Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye, when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

Lord Jesus we have come to You for help. We are struggling with judging others. Lord we want to ask You to redeem this. Jesus teach us how to pray for others when we realize they are struggling instead of judging them. Help us to have a heart that shows compassion and mercy to people who hurting. We acknowledge that You are the righteous judge over all creation. We surrender to You. We pray You would bless those whom we have judged and that Your grace would be real to them. Amen
