

Date: Thursday 30th January 2020

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

Waiting for a Miracle?: Bishop Nick Baines to deliver his next address at Bradford Cathedral

On Sunday 16th February, the Rt Revd Nick Baines, Bishop of Leeds, is presenting an address entitled ‘Waiting for a Miracle?’ at 2pm, which will be followed by an Evensong at 4pm, at which he is also preaching.

Bishop Nick Baines:

“[The address will focus on] the nature of contemporary politics in the light of faith and a need for wisdom. How are we to understand what is happening today and how might we engage in shaping political life and discourse.”

‘Waiting for a Miracle?’ takes place at Bradford Cathedral at 2pm on Sunday 16th February 2020 with refreshments following at 3:30pm. Bishop Nick Baines will also be preaching at that day’s 4pm Evensong.

ENDS

|

HOSPITALITY. FAITHFULNESS. WHOLENESS.

Notes for Editors

About Bradford Cathedral

Bradford Cathedral has been a place of worship in Bradford since the first millennium. It is the oldest building in the city and, alongside being a place of worship, hosts events, arts projects and much more.

For further information please contact:

Philip Lickley

Communications, Marketing and Events Officer

t: 01274 777720

e: commsandevents@bradfordcathedral.org