Bradford Cathedral brings monthly Faith Trail online for May

A group meet outside St. Peter's Catholic Church in Bradford at the start of one of 2019's Faith Trails.

The Bradford Faith Trail takes place on the first Saturday of the month between March and October and provides a wonderful opportunity for people to step inside five places of worship, discover something about the different faiths they represent and learn more about Bradford's local communities, cultures and faith heritage.

HOSPITALITY. FAITHFULNESS. WHOLENESS.

For May's trail Bradford Cathedral have brought it online so those interested in discovering more about some of the faith buildings in the city can explore highlights of the trail from the comfort of their home. Posts will appear on the cathedral's social media and blog, in real-time, in a special 'Faith Trail Online'.

The posts will include photos, facts and comments assembled by those who organise the monthly Faith Trail.

The Trail begins at St. Peter's RC Church at the top of Leeds Road at 10.15am, works its way down Leeds Road stopping at the Abu Bakar Masjid, the Shree Lakshmi Narayan Hindu Temple and the Guru Gobind Singh Ji Gurdwara, where everybody enjoys a vegetarian lunch.
