

PRESS RELEASE

Exploring the Gospel reading: All are welcome for Bradford Cathedral's 'Praying the Bible'

Bradford Cathedral's fortnightly 'Praying the Bible' gathering returns from Wednesday 9th September, starting at 7pm.

During the 30-minute online session, members of the Bradford Cathedral clergy take the forthcoming Sunday Gospel reading and prayerfully digest it with those joining them.

Each session ends with night prayer, and all are welcome to join in.

|

HOSPITALITY. FAITHFULNESS. WHOLENESS.

More details can be found on the website, including how to book. All those who sign up will receive a link to Google Meet.

For more information on 'Praying the Bible', and to book on, please visit
<https://www.bradfordcathedral.org/worship/praying-the-bible/>

ENDS

Notes for Editors

About Bradford Cathedral

Bradford Cathedral has been a place of worship in Bradford since the first millennium. It is the oldest building in the city and, alongside being a place of worship, hosts events, arts projects and much more.

For further information please contact:

Philip Lickley

Communications, Marketing and Events Officer

t: 01274 777720 (please leave a message and I will get back in touch with you)

e: commsandevents@bradfordcathedral.org