

PRESS RELEASE

Lindisfarne anniversary concert leads the Autumn line-up of events at Bradford Cathedral

The concert on Saturday 18th September is just one of the highlights of a busy Autumn schedule at the Cathedral.

The rescheduled Lindisfarne concert – marking their fiftieth anniversary – forms part of an impressive early Autumn line-up of events at Bradford Cathedral.

The concert, which takes place on Saturday 18th September, will see the five-piece band entertaining the Bradford crowd with hits such as Fog on the Tyne and Meet Me On The Corner. A limited number of tickets for the concert, which follows the 2019 sell-out ‘Steeleye Span’ performance, are still available from the Bradford Cathedral Eventbrite page, or they can be booked by calling the Cathedral box office.

There are many other events happening during the same month at Bradford Cathedral, including:

- Aire Valley Arts exhibition ‘Unfolding’, which showcases pieces created during the pandemic. This is a joint exhibition between the Cathedral and Kala Sangam, and runs from the start of September until the 28th October, with a free launch event on Wednesday 1st

‘Serving Christ and transforming lives through welcome, worship and encounter’

Bradford Cathedral, Stott Hill, Bradford, BD1 4EH

01274 777720 bradfordcathedral.org info@bradfordcathedral.org

f/StPeterBradford @BfdCathedral y/BradfordCathedral

September from 7pm

- The Bradford Faith Trail continues on the first Saturday of September and October, offering an opportunity to discover more about five different places of worship in the city.
- The regular programme of Bradford Cathedral Evensong returns on Sunday 5th September, and you can discover this beautiful service of prayer and music Sundays at 3:30pm and every Monday and Tuesday at 5:30pm
- The Rt Revd Toby Howarth, Bishop of Bradford, will be presenting a reflection on his recent sabbatical at a talk on the evening of Wednesday 15th September
- The Cathedral will be offering its contribution to this year's Heritage Open Days with an open afternoon on Sunday 19th September, including a talk about textile artist Louisa Pesel
- And, looking ahead to October, there will be a showing of The Greatest Showman as part of Widescreen in the Community from this year's Widescreen Weekend on Friday 8th October

More events and services will be announced soon as the Autumn programme expands, with services and events to mark the season of Harvest, a vintage fair, and a performance of Faure's Requiem just some of the upcoming highlights in October and November, ahead of a busy Advent and Christmas programme this December.

Tickets for the Lindisfarne concert, the Heritage Open Day talk, The Greatest Showman film showing, and other events as they're announced, can be booked by visiting bradfordcathedral.eventbrite.com or by calling the Cathedral Box Office on 01274 77 77 20 between 9am and 1pm Monday - Friday. Full details of all events can be found on the Bradford Cathedral website or their social media pages.

ENDS

Notes for Editors

About Bradford Cathedral

Bradford Cathedral has been a place of worship in Bradford since the first millennium. It is the oldest building in the city and, alongside being a place of worship, hosts events, arts projects and much more. In 2020 Bradford Cathedral won the gold award for 'Small Visitor Attraction of the Year' at the White Rose Awards.

For further information please contact:

Philip Lickley, Communications, Marketing and Events Officer

t: 01274 777720

e: commsandevents@bradfordcathedral.org

