This exhibition presents Afza's work with the congregation of Bradford's Reform Synagogue. It is available to visit during the Cathedral's regular opening hours.

Nudrat says:

"My hope is that viewers will have a window into a different religion, culture and heritage, that they'll be informed and be inspired by the Kehillah photographs.

"I hope this highlights the similarities between people from different backgrounds

"The complete piece of work will be of interest to many, including religious scholars, local historians, sociologists, other researchers, artists and photography enthusiasts."
