

Armed Forces Day 2020 – How you can support us

What is Armed Forces Day?

Armed Forces Day (AFD) is an annual opportunity for the UK public to celebrate the work of our Armed Forces. Saturday 27 June 2020 will be the twelfth annual AFD and the first to be marked virtually.

What is different this year?

As many events have been cancelled due to the coronavirus outbreak, AFD will be celebrated virtually on the 27 June on AFD social channels with the public encouraged to show their support from their homes. Stakeholders may wish to also mark the event virtually using their preferred online channels.

This year, we will use the week leading up to AFD (w/c 22 June), often referred to as 'Armed Forces Week', to highlight different elements of the military via themed days:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Global Armed Forces	Innovation	Reserves Day	Veterans	Cadets	AFD

What can you do to support Armed Forces Day?

- Use AFD to highlight and celebrate the work of the Armed Forces community including regulars, reserves, cadets and veterans
- Post or host relevant content on the themed days via online channels
- Share content posted on Armed Forces Day Facebook and @ArmedForcesDay Twitter pages

How can the public show their support?

What are the key messages?

2. The Armed Forces community – including service personnel, reservists, veterans, cadets and their families and friends – is valued by society for its extraordinary contribution.
