WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Perhaps the most important Day in the Year! Our World so greatly needs our prayers. St John's is hosting a WDP Service at 2pm on Friday 1st March. Do come and join us - both men and women are most welcome. The service was prepared by the women of Slovenia, and is being held throughout the world. Some of our members are taking part - do come and join with them in this special Service, and in welcoming our friends from the other Churches in Dronfield. Services also at St Swithins, Holmesfield - 11.30 followed by a Bring and Share lunch, and Coal Aston Methodist Church at 7pm.

CHRISTIAN AID LENT PROJECT - Dear Friends, This year the Dronfield Christian Aid Committee has decided that money raised from the Lent boxes go towards alleviating the tragic consequences of the conflict in Syria. Please pick up a box at the back of church along with a copy of the flyer giving fuller details of the appeal. - Marie and Derek, St Johns' Christian Aid representatives

NEW SMALL GROUP. We are planning to start a new 'small group' for informal Bible study and prayer (and tea and biscuits of course!). It will probably meet on a Tuesday afternoon at the home of Revd Eddie and Mrs Christine Orme in Carr Lane. We thought we might start in Lent this year and see how it goes. All welcome. If you would like to find out more, please speak to Peter, Eddie, Chris or Christine Williams. More later.
