St Bartholomew's and St Christopher's

St Bartholomew's Church was rebuilt in 1870. The tower, dating from the 13th century, is the oldest part of the church. Within the church are many memorials, including tributes to Alfred Lord Tennyson, Gerard Manley Hopkins & Sir Robert Hunter.

St Christopher's Church was built in 1903 in the Arts & Crafts style with a remarkable unity of design.

Sir John Betjeman, commended it in his 1958 address 'In Praise of St Christopher's Church'.

These listed churches belong to the whole of the Haslemere Community - so PLEASE SUPPORT US

Our Heritage

The churches of St Bartholomew and St. Christopher are part of the heritage of the town of Haslemere. They belong to the whole community and are the focal point for weddings, baptisms, funerals and civic occasions.

Past Projects

Already the Trust has taken the lead in a number of significant restoration projects - window grilles to protect stained glass, the restoration of the 100 year old St Cecilia tapestry and the new plaque to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Future Projects

Our future projects include a major overhaul of the organ at St Christopher's and the conservation of the rare 17th century Flemish Glass at the West End of St Bartholomew's.

The organ at St Christopher's is a fine instrument but is now badly in need of refurbishment

Adam and Eve: Detail from the Flemish Glass in the Bell Tower that needs repair

The Trust has also supported major improvements in both our churches - the redecoration of St Bartholomew's, the reordering and new West End at St Christopher's, the refurbishment of the Bells and the Organ at St Bartholomew's - and there is more to come.

We need your support

We need your support to ensure that our churches, both listed, are maintained for future generations. Please enrol as a Friend of the Parish by completing the form overleaf. You will know that you are supporting Haslemere's heritage for current and future generations.
