Brummie Comedian Joe Lycett guest edited an edition of the Guardian magazine, with a special focus on his home city. A Full double-page feature on the Dads Lane allotment included a mention of a member of our congregation who recently died. Bryan Foster, a current plot holder, said he took inspiration from two people, one of which was "Clive, a member of the Windrush generation who had a plot until he died aged 100 last year". The full article can be read: <https://www.theguardian.com/culture/2024/apr/14/life-on-a-birmingham-allotment-growing-food-vegetables> and we'll pin a copy up in the PENNINE WAY

Risen, ascended Lord, as we rejoice at your triumph, fill your Church on earth with power and compassion, that all who are estranged by sin may find forgiveness and know your peace,
to the glory of God the Father.
Amen.
