Flowers

The flowers this week have been donated by Rachel Heyhow in memory of Brian. We dearly miss Brian's input into the flower ministry at Cotteridge. Thank you so much Rachel. A big thank you to Rita Sutton for arranging the flowers the past two weeks whilst I have been on holiday. It was so appreciated. Sandra

GUARANTEE OUR ESSENTIALS

Our latest research reveals the true and devastating consequences of the inadequacy of Universal Credit. It shows that in the last month nearly half of working households claiming Universal Credit ran out of food and didn't have enough money to buy more. With a third of working families receiving the payment struggling to keep their home warm as winter approaches, the situation is getting worse.
