Brummie Comedian Joe Lycett guest edited an edition of the Guardian magazine, with a special focus on his home city. A Full double-page feature on the Dads Lane allotment included a mention of a member of our congregation who recently died. Bryan Foster, a current plot holder, said he took inspiration from two people, one of which was "Clive, a member of the Windrush generation who had a plot until he died aged 100 last year". The full article can be read: <https://www.theguardian.com/culture/2024/apr/14/life-on-a-birmingham-allotment-growing-food-vegetables> and we'll pin a copy up in the PENNINE WAY

Thank yous

Thank you 1

A very big thank you to those who attended the AGM, I feel the numbers there proved holding the meeting following Sunday Worship was very successful. Particular thanks go to all who prepared such a marvellous array of food for lunch, and especially to those who cleared and washed up afterwards. Dorothy

Thank you 2

Many thanks to all who were able to attend our garden party for Christian Aid on Sunday. We had a wonderful time on a beautiful sunny afternoon and also raised over £700 for Christian Aid. Further update in next issue of Roundabout. Barbara

Bayeux tapestry visitor museum

Peter C wrote in the May Roundabout that the Bayeux tapestry visitor museum was closed from now until 2027. Barbara has corrected me. It will close for renovation but not until September 2025. It reopens in Spring 2027.
