Be-Longing: Praying for Unity Amongst Injustice

A Devotional Service 'to explore how the work of Christian unity can contribute to the promotion of racial justice across all levels of society'

Cotteridge Quaker

Meeting House

Monday 23 January

7.30-8.30 pm

Refreshments 7.00 pm

The service has been prepared by the churches of Minneapolis as an opportunity to join with Christians from the around the world to pray that our hearts will be open to see how racism continues to destroy lives, and to discern the steps we can take to heal the hurts and build a better future for everyone.

The Service will be led Rev John Nightingale (St Francis and Chris Martin (Cotteridge Quakers) and includes:

- Address by Revd Dr Michael Jagessar*
- Personal experiences of, and standing up to, racism
- Prayers and hymns from CTB30's different traditions

* Michael describes himself as 'born and brought up in Guyana where I was based until 1987. As Indo-Guyanese-Caribbean now living in the UK, I consider myself part of the Caribbean Diaspora located in Europe. My religious heritages include Islam, Hinduism and Christianity – Caribbean style.' Michael is married to CTB30 URC Minister Rev Leonora Jagessar.

Notices Flower

Happy new year everyone. The new flower list is available in the Pennine way. Please fill your name in if you would like flowers arranged for a particular date. Thank you too for all those who have donated money for flowers over the past year. It really does help keep the Flower Fund going and I think brings joy to us all as we worship. Thank you for all your help and support.

Knit and Natter

Many thanks to all our knit and natter members and home knitters who produced dozens of hats and scarves in the weeks leading up to Christmas. These were sold for church funds at the Christmas fayre and the remainder given away free to those who needed a warm hat. Spring will soon be in the air! In anticipation we are now knitting sheep..or lambs! Do join us...wool, patterns, needles provided..as well as natter... 10.30am - 12noon every Thursday.
