

When the music fades, all is stripped away and I simply come longing just to bring something that's of worth that will bless your heart.
I'll bring you more than a song,
for a song in itself
is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within through the way things appear.
You're looking into my heart

*I'm coming back to the heart of worship and it's all about you, it's all about you, Jesus.
I'm sorry, Lord, for the thing I've made it when it's all about you, all about you, Jesus*

King of endless worth no one could express how much you deserve.
Though I'm weak and poor all I have is yours, every single breath.
I'll bring you more than a song,
for a song in itself
is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within
through the way things appear,
you're looking into my heart.

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth, and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen

Trinity

When a large ship enters a harbour, it takes on board what is called a harbour master. This is a man who knows that harbour; he knows the length of it, he knows the depth of it. He knows where the hazards are. He knows where the tides and currents are; what direction they flow in and how strong they are. When that harbour master comes on board, he takes control of that ship, and he gives orders to the captain who steers the ship. He is an outside expert who is brought in to make sure that ship docks safely.

As we sail through the sea of life, we have been given a harbour master. It is the Holy Spirit who knows the currents, the tides, the hazards, and the flow. If you will let the Holy Spirit guide the ship of your life, She will guide you safely through the hazards of earth, right into the harbour of heaven. Because She is the only guide you need.
