The Collect (Opening Prayer) for Trinity Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading from the Old Testament – Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live.
The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

The Gospel Reading – John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples, 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.
When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine.
For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

School News - www.stmargaretscofeprimary.co.uk

We've had a busy and eventful week this week, not helped by the very uncharacteristically wet June weather! Our environmentalists, sports stars and musical talents have all been on show this week. On Monday, Years R, 1, 5 and 6 braved the rain and went down to the beach to work with Cool Seas to do a beach clean. The children met Wayne Dixon, who has spent the last three years walking the coast line of England and clearing up the rubbish that he finds. To date he has cleared away 50 tonnes of rubbish and has only got half way round the country! We were very privileged to help him on his quest and we were also able to look at some of the wildlife that we are lucky enough to have living on our coast lines. Well done to all of the children for their fantastic attitudes and their ability to work with each other across the year groups in trying circumstances, I spoke to many of the children who said they had a great time despite the weather – resilience at it's best. Rachel Kershaw, Headteacher Please pray for our children, staff and governors.
