The Collect (Opening Prayer) for the Third Sunday after Trinity

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading from the Old Testament – Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her — that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious bosom. For thus says the LORD: I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and dandled on her knees. As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the LORD is with his servants, and his indignation is against his enemies.

The Gospel Reading – Luke 10:1-11, 16-20

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." 'Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.' The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

The Lookout

Mthr Lucy is now editing The Lookout, please send your notices to churchoffice@stmargaret.org.uk with LOOKOUT as the subject heading.

Tower repairs

Works to the tower should be underway at the end of the summer. The work will cost around £100,000, and we have so far raised £47,331 which is a great effort. We have done well but there is still some way to go. If you have any ideas or contacts that might help make up the shortfall, please speak with Fr Anthony. The repairs are urgent and cannot be put off!

St Margaret's Women's Group

St Margaret's women's group will not be meeting in The Cottage this Monday, 8th July as usual as they will be having an historical walk around Seaford.

St Margaret's Day 2019 celebrations

On the Feast of St Margaret of Antioch (20th July) we will be opening up the Cottage gardens for a joint picnic and time of fun and fellowship. You are invited to bring along your own picnic and share with friends. Teas and coffees will be available. The Cottage will be open from 1230, for a 1300 start. Garden games and activities available for children (young and old). Family, friends and neighbours most welcome to join in the celebrations.

Next Brighton Deanery Confirmation Service – Thursday 12th September at 1930

Would anyone who would like to explore the possibility of being confirmed (or even preparing for baptism), please be in touch with Mthr Lucy.

Canterbury Day Pilgrimage – Monday 28th October 2019

Join us for a day pilgrimage to Canterbury on the Feast of Ss Simon and Jude - the day is to include a tour of the cathedral, Eucharist in the crypt and Choral Evensong sung by the cathedral choir with free time to explore the city. The approximate cost of the day is £50pp (£15.50 for tour and entry to the cathedral + £32.75 for the coach) the cost will be confirmed once we know numbers. More details available on the sign up sheet in the porch or from Mthr Lucy.
