The Collect (Opening Prayer) for the Fourth Sunday after Trinity

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy;
that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal;
grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading from the Old Testament – Deuteronomy 30:9-14

And the LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the LORD your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

The Gospel Reading – Luke 10:25-37

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.' But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Tower repairs

Works to the tower should be underway at the end of the summer. The work will cost around £100,000, and we have so far raised £47,331 which is a great effort. We have done well but there is still some way to go. If you have any ideas or contacts that might help make up the shortfall, please speak with Fr Anthony. The repairs are urgent and cannot be put off!

St Margaret's Day 2019 celebrations

On the Feast of St Margaret of Antioch (20th July) we will be opening up the Cottage gardens for a joint picnic and time of fun and fellowship. You are invited to bring along your own picnic and share with friends. Teas and coffees will be available. The Cottage will be open from 1230, for a 1300 start. Garden games and activities available for children (young and old). Family, friends and neighbours most welcome to join in the celebrations.

The Village Fair- Saturday 3rd August

Volunteers are needed to set up our stall at the village fair on Saturday 3rd August at 8.30am. Help is also needed to take down the stall and return items to the cottage at about 4pm. Please see Marie or Joyce.

Next Brighton Deanery Confirmation Service – Thursday 12th September at 1930

Would anyone who would like to explore the possibility of being confirmed (or even preparing for baptism), please be in touch with Mthr Lucy.

Canterbury Day Pilgrimage – Monday 28th October 2019

Join us for a day pilgrimage to Canterbury on the Feast of Ss Simon and Jude - the day is to include a tour of the cathedral, Eucharist in the crypt and Choral Evensong sung by the cathedral choir with free time to explore the city. The approximate cost of the day is £50pp (£15.50 for tour and entry to the cathedral + £32.75 for the coach) the cost will be confirmed once we know numbers. More details available on the sign up sheet in the porch or form Mthr Lucy.
