Devotement | A Call To...Remember | 1 Corinthians 11:17-30

1. Share your experiences of Christmas and New Year. Have you made any resolutions which are specifically about your faith journey? If not, why not?
2. Which two words would you use to describe what a disciple of Jesus should look like? Do you like the word 'devotement', combining 'devoted' and 'commitment' with this regard?
3. In Exodus 12:26-27, God's people are encouraged to explain, "What does this ceremony mean to you?". How would you answer the question regarding Communion?

READ: 1 Corinthians 11:17-30

4. What challenges you or strikes you freshly from this text?
5. Can you identify the problems in the church at Corinth? Is Paul being even a little over the top in his rebuke or is it fair and for good reason? Why does it bother it him so much?
6. What, do you think, might Paul say to the church at CBC if he were writing to us about our gatherings and our sharing of Communion?
7. What is Paul calling the church to remember thoughtfully in verses 23-26?
8. Read 1 Corinthians 10:15-17. What do these verses, alongside 1 Corinthians 11:23-26, communicate about participating totally?
9. Paul challenges individualism and disunity in 1 Corinthians 11:17-22 and 27-30 - share togetherly. How, do you think, is The Lord's Supper an opportunity to express both individual and corporate faith in Christ?
10. What does the warning verses 28-30 mean?
11. Spend some time praying together about your hopes and fears for 2022.
