

One Another

In the Bible, God helps us to know how to live together as a family. Today, we're thinking about what we can learn from the New Testament.

I wonder...
(talk it over with someone you trust)

What are you devoted to? How do others know that?

Challenge

What does it mean to be devoted to someone else? How can you show you are devoted to God's family?

What might help you remember this this week? You might want to sing:
