4 January 2021

Good Evening,

It is with great sadness that my first letter to you as Acting Headteacher is regarding school closures. Following the announcement from the government this evening, I am writing to advise you that the school will be closed from Wednesday 6th January (planned PD day tomorrow, 5th January) until further notice to all pupils other than those with parents of 'Key Worker' status or pupils who are classed as vulnerable. Further information outlining the provision at school and booking forms for these pupils will follow tomorrow, as will details for our plans for remote learning.

Let's hope that the recent good news of the vaccines means that this current period of restrictions will be limited. In the meantime, let's hope we all manage to stay safe and healthy in the coming weeks. Please pass on how sorry I am to the children for the school closure and we look forward to seeing them all soon.
