

TICKETS were a sell-out for a quiz night in the public hall arranged by Mrs Ella Chapman and the evening started with a hot supper. One hundred and sixty people attended the evening dividing themselves into groups making 17 teams who answered questions on general knowledge, music, literature, history, science, films and sound effects. Winning team was "Schoolgate" organised by Sue Coldham. The questions were set by Mr Peter Burbridge and Mrs Elizabeth Burbridge. Mr Peter Burbridge was question master and scorer was Mr David Casswell. There were 12 prizes in a raffle organised by Mrs Ella Chapman, assisted by Mr Stuart Burbridge, Christopher and Sally Sheppard. All prizes had been donated. During the interval all enjoyed hot soup. Refreshments both at the beginning and during the interval were organised by Mrs Ella Chapman, assisted by Mrs Angela Burt, Mrs Lorna Williams and helpers. The evening was arranged by Mrs Chapman in aid of the funds for the new church hall and made a profit of £300.
