Sun smiles on church fete

THE sun smiled on the first Gosberton Baptist Church fete for several years.

The church has not held a fete for at least seven years and decided this year it was time for a change.

Most of the stalls were on the lawn at the church in Spalding Road, Gosberton.

There were cakes, home-made cards and cream teas on sale as well as a host of competitions to try." There was also a demonstration of martial art Tai Chi Chuan by a Gosberton group.

One of the deacons at the church Des Curtis helped organise the event.

He said: "It was quite successful. We had a grand afternoon and everyone enjoyed themselves."

The fete raised £280 for church funds.
