

...s.
...nst the others
...ed.

Celebrated re-opening

Gosberton Baptist church Sunday school was re-opened on Thursday, after redecoration, by Mrs. O. I. Turner, of Pinchbeck, who was presented with a bouquet by Phyllis Baxter.

The afternoon devotions were conducted by the Rev. J. Scott Thorburn, of Spalding.

The Rev. F. J. Gay, of Pinchbeck, presided in the evening, when the speaker was Mr. J. W. George.

Mrs. Pattinson and Miss Jean Pattinson, of Boston, contributed solos.

Mrs. H. K. Charlton, of Risegate House, was organist. There was a tea, given by Mrs. J. Inkley, senr.

Proceeds were for Sunday school funds.

ORGAN FUND-RAISER

A SPONSORED organ and piano recital at Gosberton Baptist Church on Saturday raised cash for the church restoration fund.

The recital was the brainchild of church organist and pianist Greta Bates. She played for four hours — to the delight of other church members, some of whom sang along.

Church member Mrs Eileen Baxter said the amount raised would not be known for some time until the sponsorship forms were collected.

She said the money would be used to rebuild toilets at the church.

In the picture — Greta Bates during her four-month recital surrounded by church members (back to left): Beatrice Stanley, Elizabeth Smith, Eileen Baxter, Joan Burton, (front) — Nancy Faribanks. (B2299-19A)

Waiting for the rush — helpers on the home-made cake stall at Gosberton Baptist Church garden party on the chapel lawns on Saturday. Pictured next to the minister, the Rev. T. Gillies, is Mrs Betty Hughes, of Donington, who declared the fete open.

Margaret Rolphe pictured as she presented Mrs. C. F. Turner with a bouquet at Gosberton Baptist church fete last week. The event was opened by Mr. Turner.