

16 Sept 1983

The Spalding Guardian, Fri

HARVEST SUPPER SEASON

A harvest supper and produce sale was held at the Gosberton Methodist Chapel in Salem Street on Monday evening.

About 30 people sat down to a tea of meat and seasonal vegetables, and afterwards a member of the church, Mr John Furniss, auctioned the produce.

Another church member, Mrs Shirley Sandall, of Quadring, said that a total of £140 had been raised from the sale and other events held at the weekend.

These included a Sunday school prizegiving and service in the morning, and a

Sunday evening service when the ladies' choir sang.

The money raised will go into the chapel's fund.

Helpers at the harvest supper were Mrs Nellie Thorold, Mrs Eileen Thorold, Mrs Carol Wilson and Mrs Sandall, who is standing on the left of our picture next to her daughter, Mrs Belinda Taylor.

Also pictured is the Rev Peter Robinson (right) and his wife Elaine, who is sitting at the head of the table.