3 steps . . .

Three steps that we encourage every adult member of the church to take:

1. Make a Will and review it regularly
2. Consider leaving a residuary gift in your Will to our Church
3. Get a free information pack about making a Will and making a difference to the work of the wider Church.

Visit www.churchlegacy.org.uk

Alvaston Church Legacy

A Lasting gift to your church

How you can make a lasting difference to the work of your Church

Thinking about life after death should not be difficult for Christians, but often we push those thoughts to the back of our minds.

The Church, however, encourages us to make practical as well as spiritual preparations, and one way of doing this is by making a will.

Whatever your age, consider writing a will, and try to keep it up to date.

Without it, your loved ones could face a lot of trouble, work and expense after your death.

Remembering the Church in your will is a wonderful way both to thank God for the blessings that you have received and to help the Church to meet the needs of future generations.

Many Christians give regularly each week, but we are stewards of all that we own, not just our income. No matter how large or small, then, every gift that is left to the Church can make a real impact on our mission and ministry.

Leaving a gift to Alvaston Parish Church can also reduce the amount of inheritance tax that you pay. All gifts to charities in wills are tax-free because they are deducted from the value of your estate when inheritance tax (IHT) is calculated.

Our Legacy Policy

Here at Alvaston Parish Church we welcome all gifts in wills, large or small, and we promise to use your gift to make a difference in our parish. Our PCC Legacy Policy is to use gifts to help fund significant development projects.

Since needs change over the years, we encourage you to leave a gift in your will for the general purposes of the parish rather than for a restricted purpose. We can discuss possible uses of your gift with your executors when the time comes, bearing in mind your known areas of interest (e.g. music, buildings, children, local & overseas mission) and the church's priorities at the time.

You can be confident that your gift will be used to make a difference to our future mission and ministry.

We will acknowledge gifts in whatever way the donor and/or his/her executors feel most appropriate. Equally, we can make sure that gifts remain anonymous if the donor prefers.

If you would like to talk to someone in confidence about the sorts of purposes your gift might fund, and how/if you would like your gift to be acknowledged, please use the contact details below. If you would like to make a gift to our church in memory of a loved one, please do come and discuss this with us too.
