Welcome to the NOVEMBER Edition of LINK

One of our Churchwardens, Duncan Argyle, writes ...

A few nights ago I was delighted to hear some owls. A glance at the clock which beamed 5.01 reminded me of the '501 club' weary colleagues craved as soon as teaching officially finished at 5pm on Friday afternoons. For a brief interlude, the intensity of the previous week and the forthcoming weekend tidying up its consequences, whilst also preparing for the next week of action could be set to one side. Once in a while everyone needs to stop and take stock. In good company the benefits and refreshment can be multiplied, although peace and calm are also restorative tonics.

Our parish is presented with a 'taking stock' moment, now we have bid farewell to Paul and seek whoever God has lined up to take his place. A recent CMS magazine quoted "But Moses' hands grew weary; so...Aaron and Hur held up his hands ... so his hands were steady..." (Exodus 17:12) and so, working together and committing their actions to God, Israel went on to prevail. With this in mind, I commend to you the Parish Prayer Meetings on Mondays at 11am (and the 1st Thursday of the month at 7:30pm) in the Memorial Hall where we can, together, lay our needs and our requests before the Lord.

I got up early in the morning and rushed right into the day.
I had so much to accomplish
That I didn't have time to pray.

Problems just tumbled around me
And heavier came each task.
I whined, "Why doesn't God help me?"
He said, "You didn't ask."

I groaned and shouted and grumbled,
I tried every key in the lock.
I cried, "Why doesn't He open?"
He said, "Son, you didn't knock."

So, I got up early this morning
And paused before entering the day.
I had so much to accomplish
I had to take time to pray.

CHURCH SERVICES - NOVEMBER 2020

Our regular services are now 10.15 at All Saints' and 10.00 at St Andrew's (all socially distanced, of course!)

Interregnum Update

* We are going to have to exercise a lot of patience! The Diocese is needing to take significant steps to reduce costs arising from a deficit due to Covid. The Mission and Pastoral committee will meet in November to discuss plans; meanwhile no vacancies are being filled, except for two parishes who had advertised at the start of Covid. So, we await a decision about advertising till later in the year. Work is going ahead with the Parish profile so we are ready when the Archdeacon comes to visit but he cannot commit to a date yet.

Meanwhile -

* Duncan has met a representative from the Diocese re letting the Vicarage.

* We meet each Monday to pray for our congregations, for the day to day running of the church, and for the appointment of a new Vicar.

We Will Remember Them

They shall grow not old
As we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them,
Nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
And in the morning
We will remember them.

Remembrance Sunday 8th November

Due to Coronavirus restrictions, there will be no service at the Memorial this year. Services will be held in both churches, but in order to enable us to maintain social distancing, you will need to book in advance. Please contact the church office to do this. There will also be a special service on line, part of which will be filmed at the War Memorial.

One of our daily newspapers is calling for a 'doorstep' Act of Remembrance. Watch out for any details.

Anne's 'Thoughts from the Tiptoe Triangle'

Hello Everyone

Life doesn't stand still! As we are all aware, both the Government and the Church of England are constantly updating their guidelines for how we live and worship in order to stay safe, and we do our best to keep up with current regulations. With the continuing need to take care, this means that our Christmas worship services will be different from previous occasions, but at least we will be able to meet together in church, all being well, which is a big step forward from Easter when all our services in church were cancelled.

While life round us is changing, we are called to change from within too. As disciples of Christ, we grow from being babes to mature adults, as Paul bluntly described to the Corinthian Christians:

And so, brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, for you are still of the flesh. (1 Cor 3: 1-3a).

He was referring especially to rifts and quarrelling. But the principle applies to all our behaviour as we learn to live together and grow in maturity, as we understand the ways that Jesus showed us of how to live according to God's holy will. The straightforward version comes in the Ten Commandments, the complicated version comes in the 613 commandments followed by traditional Jews today, and the simple and most effective version comes in Jesus' Summary of the Law: you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength. and 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself. Mark 12:29-31.

As we think ahead to a different Christmas when we may not see each other as much as we would like, and gifts are not so easy to exchange, maybe we can think how we can share this gift of love with our families, friends and neighbours, especially through prayer. In doing so, we will mature and become more like Christ each day.

Our challenge as a church is to walk together 'at the speed of love'

Rev'd Ian Green - Amersham Free Church

LINK is very grateful to Graham Fairbairn for helping us to focus on the meaning of The Apostles' Creed .

A Plain Person's Guide to the Apostles Creed - 4

I Believe he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.

The cruel and savage death by crucifixion of an innocent person who had never committed any sin sits right at the centre of the Christian story.

The mention of Pontius Pilate, Roman governor of Judea from AD 26-36, provides historical context for the execution. Jesus' death was no accident but a conscious part of his purpose. He alluded to his death many times and clearly predicted it when speaking to his closest disciples. The picture of a suffering servant from Isaiah 53 provides a clear insight into the death of Jesus. The prophet spells out the spiritual meaning of his death, bearing the punishment for sin - not his sin, but ours. All human beings have sinned and turned away from God but because of the cross we can be reconciled to him through repentance and faith. Many volumes have been written on the cross, but essentially it was the supreme act of God's love for us.

Apostle Paul suggests there are only two human responses to the cross: for those who don't believe it seems like foolishness, but for those who believe it is the power of God bringing salvation. Because of this, when we believe in and trust in Christ we need have no fear of death because he has overcome death for us.

Life is short, make the most of it, put God first, love deeply, forgive quickly, laugh a lot, find and live out your purpose.

Nicky Gumbel

Meet the PCC - 13 Mark Strode

I was born in 1970, into a family of five boys in Guildford, Surrey.

We had a fun-filled upbringing and attended the local Roman Catholic Church where I was confirmed at the age of 15.

Having left school at 16, I went on to take a diploma in Hotel and Catering and Institutional Management at Guildford Technical College.

Having watched my older brothers go off travelling, at age 18 it was my turn and I went off to Pennsylvania to work on a children's camp for the summer followed by some travelling along the west coast.

After a short spell as a DJ in London, I took the snow train out to the ski resort of Val d'Iserre in France. There I spent four years as a DJ in a night club for both winter and summer seasons.

At age 22 I went off and back-packed across America for four months before returning to the UK, only to jump on a plane back to Florida to join Princess Cruises as an 'Entertainments Director' for the next five years. Between contracts I travelled round Northern Europe, Indonesia, New Zealand and Australia.

I finally returned to the UK and spent the next 20 years in the Hospitality industry, running bars, restaurants, Health Centres and medical centres.

After being made redundant in 2018, I hung up my corporate shoes and now run my own local property care and garden maintenance business.

I met my wife, Bryony, in All Saints' Hordle in 2017 and we married in 2019. I have two children aged 16 and 18 from a previous marriage.

With increased leadership roles within the church, I wanted to make more of a difference so joined the PCC in 2019.

I feel blessed to live in Hordle and to be part of a community-focussed church that is so warm and welcoming.

We still travel a lot but always feel we have returned home as we cross the village boundary.

Harvest at Hordle

4th October 2020

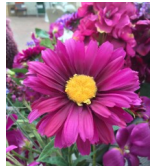

Seasons of our lives

Is there a favourite time of life that fills your heart with joy?
Are you happier in later years than when a girl or boy?

Just think about the springtime, or long-awaited birth.
When daffodils and snowdrops come popping through the earth.
Now think about your early years when you were just a tot,
Your family around you, all the precious love you got.

And what about the summer days that glow with warmth and light,
With the borders full of blossoms, and the fields a glorious sight?
Remember your own summer, the love songs that were sung,
When two hearts beat in harmony and wedding bells were rung.

With autumn comes the cooler days and leaves turn gold and red,
In church the fruits of harvest, and prayers of thanks are said.
Our autumn days are quiet days, to ponder all that's been,
And thank God for the blessings that our early lives have seen.

Then winter comes with icy chills, the fields are bare of crops,
The trees raise naked arms above, and nature all but stops.
But our lives grow in richness with the passing of the years,
We lift our thoughts to heaven, to the God who hears our prayers.

We say a heartfelt 'thank you' for the passing of our days.
For the gifts that we've been given, we offer God our praise.

Hordle CE (VA) Primary School & Nursery

GOOD LUCK PAUL!

It is with sadness that we are saying farewell to the coolest, surfing, rockstar Vicar Hordle has ever known!

As you all know Paul has lit the church and village up since he arrived and we will all miss him dearly, his joyful presence at the school and church will never be forgotten.

A big 'thank you' assembly was held in his honour and you will see he is a fan of his Headteacher stickers! He left with arms full of handmade gifts and certificates from our superbly brilliant children and staff, with choruses of well - deserved applause.

Best of luck Paul in your new parish of Barnstaple; we are all excited for your new journey and know you will be great.

Warmest Hordle wishes and thanks to you and your lovely family.

APCM REPORT 22nd September 2020

These meetings took place on Zoom and 44 people managed to log in.

The Annual Meeting of Parishioners elected Gill Morris and Duncan Argyle to stand as Church Wardens for the forthcoming year.

The Annual Parish Church Meeting approved the minutes of last year's meeting.

The following were elected to serve on the PCC: Anthea Fisher, Roger Freeman, Davina Griffiths, Ed Hood, Richard Nunn, Alastair Pickburn. One third of the PCC now represents Tiptoe and two thirds Hordle.

The following were elected to the Deanery Synod: Ian Andrews, Andrew Franklin, Martin Scott.

The Electoral Roll now stands at 154.

The Annual Report and Financial Statement had been available for four weeks prior to the meeting.

The Church in Action Booklet describes all the activities of the church and is well worth a read to see all that is going on! It is available on-line and in both churches.

Andrew Franklin, the Treasurer, made the following comments on the church finances:

In 2019 the Income was similar to that of 2018 at 159K.

Expenditure was down from £185K in 2018 to £166K in 2019 as there was little in the way of major repairs in 2019.

The PCC was able to meet its increased commitment to the Common Mission Fund of £90K (previously known as Parish Share) although this figure is still below the Diocesan recommendation. Andrew reminded everyone that it costs about £3,000 a week to run both churches and he is very grateful to those who give by regular planned giving as it makes it possible to budget more effectively. Signing a Gift Aid declaration increases the value of the gift by 25%. He was concerned when in 2019 a few generous givers moved away or died, but this shortfall has been made up by new people in the congregation and others increasing their giving.

Andrew reminded us that we can never outgive God the Father or God the Son, as God so loved the world that he gave his only Son and Jesus gave everything, including his life, on the cross.

Andrew pointed out that usually nearly all our income is from personal giving but since March ALL our income has been from personal giving as we have not been able to hire out our halls. Even though the buildings have been closed the church is very much alive and the PCC is grateful to all who have continued to give this year. He is hopeful we can meet our commitment to the CMF by the end of the year.

Andrew thanked all those who help him with the finances week by week.

It had been pointed out to the Standing Committee that there was a new requirement to have a safeguarding report in the Annual Report. The meeting was told this would be rectified and the Annual Report re-issued to the Charity Commission.

The fabric report of All Saints' and St Andrew's is in the Church in Action booklet but Duncan read it out and also said it is great to be part of a delightful team and thanked everyone for their time, energy and expertise in helping him fulfil his role.

The Vicar expressed his gratitude for the love, fellowship and support that he had received over the past 12 years in the parish of Hordle and Tiptoe. He stressed the need for a focus on unity and prayer as the parish goes forward into the Interregnum.

Mary Moynagh (PCC Sec)

Tim Cosby has given us another varied diet of After-Service interviews ...

Tim Billington spoke to us about his early experience of faith when living in East Africa with his missionary parents. One example was when prayer was answered for his father when he needed to return to the UK, urgently, because his mother was seriously ill. The airline held the plane so that he could catch the only flight to London.

Tim spoke of very happy memories of working as a GP in the Lordshill area of Southampton and he went on to encourage us all, of a 'certain generation', to share our life experiences and what God has done in our lives, with the younger generation.

Tim talked with great joy and passion about his work as a Street Pastor in Southampton. He had many stories to recount.

Tim has been involved with other Christian outreach work all his life including Scripture Union beach missions. He has also been involved, latterly, with setting up Discipleship Training in Southampton among the student population. He spoke about his experiences as a Radio Solent doctor where he learnt to explain issues clearly.

Tim finished by urging all of us to be aware of the importance of speaking to others about our faith in the 'first person' – 'us and not 'you'.

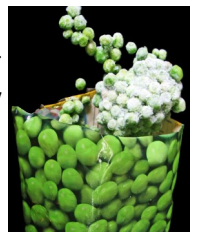

Nigel Cosby spoke about precision farming – the new Agricultural Revolution.

Nigel shared some sobering statistics about farming and global food requirements in the next 30 years. By 2050 the World will require an additional 70% extra food.

Labour efficiency has increased twenty-fold since the 1940s. During the War one farm labourer fed approximately five people. Today that figure has risen to 100, with the agricultural operative required to be very highly efficient in IT.

Precision Farming is, fundamentally, the use of GPS technology to control today's highly sophisticated farm machinery in order to gain the maximum results from every acre. The modern tractor or harvester, fitted with this guidance based technology, can operate to within an accuracy of ten millimetres. Hence the incredibly straight lines that we may notice in large fields of crops.

Nigel spoke about the highly technical area of green pea production for processing. GPS guided harvesting machinery, costing over £400,000 per unit, can be controlled with huge accuracy. This is highly weather and time critical— quite literally, a crop can spoil within a few hours if weather or conditions prevent harvesting. The next time you buy a bag of frozen peas think Precision Farming!

Revd Nicky Lee is a member of the Holy Trinity Brompton clergy team. He came to faith, together with his, now, wife Sila before they married. Having joined HTB, he worked for a while as a teacher, then went on to be ordained in 1985. and joined the clergy team at HTB.

Alpha, Nicky told us, started in a very small way but rapidly grew after Nicky Gumbel took over its development in 1990. The Nickys have since grown to be firm friends. Alpha is now used by churches and Christian organisations worldwide. It has been translated into 112 languages.

Nicky and Sila have been very involved in the development of the Marriage Course and founded the organisation - Relationship Central.

Nicky also told us about the concept of Church Plants that HTB have developed. Simon Robertson, who served his curacy at Hordle and Tiptoe, moved on to an HTB plant church in Andover. The earliest plant that HTB developed was in Brighton. When the idea of some of the HTB team moving to Brighton to take over a redundant church and reopen it, everyone thought they were 'crazy'. "Who would want to go to Brighton to do this?" This church has now grown to be extremely successful. This encouraged HTB to set up plants all over the South of England from Plymouth to Brighton. Locally we have Lovechurch in Bournemouth.

Such plants are welcomed by central church leadership as they create revival. Their members often go on to join other local churches and generate growth. The style of these Plants often appeals to new church goers as they start their Christian life.

David Robinson, of Searchlight Theatre Company, spoke about the problems that live performers and theatres are experiencing during the Covid crisis. He recalled bringing Would You Adam and Eve it? to Ashley so successfully in June last year.

In his 32 years in the Performing Arts, David has experienced nothing like this current crisis. He and Michael were furloughed in March but are now returning to work. They have to be very creative and find new ways to communicate with their audiences.

Christmas should be the busiest time for a Christian Theatre Group. David and Michael are currently working on a number of online and filmed ventures. Among these are a short series of presentations entitled The Most Wonderful Time of the Year. These will highlight both the joys of Christmas and some of the attendant pressures and stresses.

However, David pointed out that nothing can match real live theatre and the relationship between performers and their audience. David and Michael plan to bring their highly successful Screwtape Letters presentation back to the stage as soon as possible in 2021. They are also compiling a post-Christmas online service – with a difference – aimed at relieving some of the burden that clergy feel after the main event is over.

Thoughts from my Garden ...

We had some really beautiful weather in September. I got up early one morning to go shopping just as the sun was rising and it was worth the effort. This morning, it was still dark when I got up but it is nice to get the shopping done early ... and every week is a week nearer Spring!

My butternut squash have done well this year - I have picked 35 fruits, not very big ones but about 1lb in weight. They make good soup and keep well with their tough skins. I suppose I should have removed more of them early on, then they would have grown bigger! I nearly pulled up the French beans a few weeks ago, but I noticed some flowers, so I left them and have picked a lot more since. It is mid-October and there are still a few little ones growing. I will grow them again next year as I have enjoyed them.

The birds are enjoying the fat balls I put out, with the ground-feeding birds clearing the bits which fall. Sparrows are the main feeders at the moment and a few blue tits. I look forward to seeing more birds, usually long-tailed tits come and feed.

I had an encounter with a robin. I was sat on the ground amongst flowers, doing some weeding, when he came and joined me, perching really close, even using the lace knot on my shoe as a perch. It is such a privilege to be so close to God's creatures and see how beautiful they are. I know robins are very protective of their chosen garden. I did witness a fight between two robins with one ending up on it's back. I was watching from the garage and was just about ready to interfere, when it flew away, chased by the other one!

One year, there was a friendly robin at St. Andrew's Church, which would come into the service if the door was open!

Enjoy the Autumn

Dear God ...

Here I am again - I could say 'Still here'. A year has passed since we began to chat about getting in touch and staying in touch. I still find myself wondering, 'Is there anyone there?' It has been difficult at times, hard work which seems to make no difference. I am trying to get it right ...

Dear Carolyn ...

I'm not asking you to try or to do what you ought. I'm asking you to be with me, as you are, be yourself. Focus on me, be aware of my presence. The other things are only useful if they help you come closer to me. Anyway, it's not all up to you. I know you have a terrible tendency to try — you ask for the wrong things, and you can't put your feelings into words, so I've sent you a helper. Paul, a friend of mine who lived 200 years ago, knew about the helper and wrote to his friends:

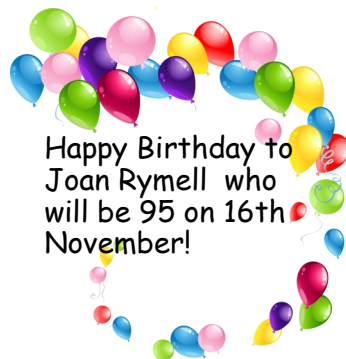

'The Spirit helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.'

This helper, the Spirit, prays with you and for you, so I will get the right message from you. Come to me and be yourself.

Carolyn Petts

We are sorry we are unable to splash the paint, glue, sparkles, make amazing stuff with clay, enjoy a happy time with the drama of acting and sharing the stories of the Bible at the moment. We very much miss the meeting of friends. When we relaunch in these uncertain times we will be in touch. Please pray for a positive outcome whenever that may be ... the new year or beyond!!!

Lymington Bowling Club

With so many of our members living in the surrounding local areas, we are very grateful to be able to tell you about the Club's year. Like all sports clubs, we were unable to start our outdoor season in April because of the Covid-19 lockdown.

Then an urgent call came through from NHS Southern Health asking to use our spacious Clubhouse to run emergency training courses for their staff. We were proud to be of service to the NHS at such a critical time. We started our outdoor season in a restricted way in early June, working strictly to the Government's Covid-19 regulations. Ever since, more and more of our members have enjoyed having good exercise in a safe environment. We have used the Summer to further improve the Club's facilities. Members can now use credit and debit cards to pay contactlessly for bar purchases and subscriptions. We replaced the kitchen with a sparkling new one, and have purchased a special ramp for the green, making access easier for infirm members.

We don't think we can take any more.

Keep your distance! Don't touch me! Get away!

Two metres, no nearer, I pray,

Or the bug will zoom in,

And puncture my skin,

I'll be doomed as old Frazer would say.

(You need to know 'Dad's Army' for the last line.)
