Seminars & sessions over multiple dates

The Reading Room - a place for women in ministry/leadership to discover and talk about books:

8 June 2021, 11am - 'Invisible Women' by Caroline Criado Perez

20 July 2021, 11am - 'Theology Brewed in an African Pot' by Agbonkhianmeghe E Orbator

The purpose of the reading room is to build community and learn together. Reading is a beautiful practice and books invite us to explore and to bring into question other worldviews. Our hope is that the reading room will broaden your resource base and creativity in a way that will help you in your own ministry. We recognise that everyone will have their own response to what they read, and we want this to be an activity and community that serves you in your ministry.

Each meeting will last for one hour. For more information, and details on how to join the zoom call, email Jane Day jday@baptist.org.uk

Survey - Domestic Abuse and Preaching - your help please:

Susanna Morris is studying towards an MA in Domestic Abuse at the University of Worcester, and is choosing to focus her studies on the Church. For the dissertation, she is looking at the role of preaching in addressing Domestic Abuse, particularly in Baptist settings. She has developed a short survey to gather the views of anyone involved in preaching in Baptist Union churches. If you would be interested in completing this survey, she would be very grateful and the link is below. It is completely anonymous. She would also welcome any help with distributing the survey more widely to anyone who preaches in a UK Baptist setting (it is not restricted to full-time Baptist Ministers).
