SEBA Churches live-streaming services this Easter

We are pleased to share with you details of the services being live-streamed this Easter, by a number of the SEBA churches (there won't be an update to this - so apologies if any information is incorrect or you did not meet the 2pm deadline to let me know)

Details of those who are usually live-streaming on Sundays are still available via the SEBA website <https://www.seba-baptist.org.uk/sebachurchesstreamingservices.htm> (do let me know if your church details need to be added to that, by dropping me an email admin@seba-baptist.org.uk)

Nick Barratt, Minister at Romney Marsh Community Church has produced an Easter craft activity video (he apologises for the quality and editing, but wanted to put together something to give children & adults something they could make to help tell the Easter story), if you would like to view it, please click on the link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-Uz9IniTloc&t=39s>

Also available:

Baptists Together President, Ken Benjamin, has put together this short service to share. It is particularly suitable for churches which do not have the capacity to develop their own online service.

The service includes greetings from Lynn Green (General Secretary), Hilary Taylor (Small Church Enabler for the London Baptist Association), a message from Ken and prayer led by Diane Watts (Faith and Society Interim Team Leader).

There's also a non-premium phone number on that link so those without internet access can listen to the message on their phones – for more information go to
