

Oak Hall Expeditions

'The Essence of Christmas'

- Seaside town of Porthcawl
- Encouraging evening Bible messages
- Excursions to explore Welsh highlights

"Oak Hall continues to offer a wide range of holidays in its summer programme that are designed with adventure in mind. For those who prefer a more mellow style we have arranged ideal tours with no overnight travel. All age groups are welcome, but this holiday may particularly appeal to those in the more mature age group."

The Essence of Christmas

Our 'Essence of Christmas holidays' have been very popular. For this refreshing break in 2022, we are staying at the 'Seabank Hotel' in Porthcawl, Wales at the start of December.

Christmas is a wonderful time to enjoy refreshing celebrations and the joyful message of Jesus' birth.

The affordable cost of £238 includes:

- Inspiring Bible series and music each evening
- Luxury return coach travel from Otford or Chieveley to the hotel
- Three-star hotel close to the beaches and seafront
- En-suite hotel rooms, all with tea making facilities
- Full English breakfasts each morning
- Four evening meals including a 'Christmas' meal
- Packed lunches on the two excursion days
- All coach transport for excursions (please allow for entrance fees)
- Time to relax and walk by the sea

Excellent excursions

During the holiday, our first excursion will take us to Cardiff with the chance to explore the attractive Cardiff Bay, the Castle, the National Museum, shops or a whole host of other attractions.

On our second excursion we visit St Fagans, an open air museum exploring the story of Wales through over 40 original buildings from throughout the country's history. On our third excursion we visit the Big Pit Museum to explore the interesting history of coal mining, including a guided underground tour.

A choice of meeting points

You can join us in Otford, Kent or at the Chieveley services (at the junction of the M4/A34) . You can also meet at the hotel in Porthcawl if you prefer.

Dates/Prices

The cost includes return coach transport from Otford, Kent or Chieveley services (M4/A34) with four nights at the Seabank Hotel in Porthcawl with breakfast and evening meals (plus packed lunch on two days). It also includes coach transport for two excursions (please allow for entrance fees) The deposit is £50 if booking more than two months in advance (plus single room supplement, if applicable).