South Aisle Floor Repairs

Long-awaited repairs to the South Aisle floor begin on 7th January 2019 and are due to continue for five weeks. These repairs are necessary because beetle-damage to supporting joists have made the floor unsafe. For the duration of the work the area outlined (see diagram) will be boarded out. The Old Baptistery and Bell Tower will still be accessible.

Church Closure Monday 7th and Tuesday 8th January 2019

Breakfast Club, Food Parcels, Morning and Evening Prayer will continue, but, otherwise, the Church will be closed to visitors on 7th and 8th January. The Healing Service will take place in the Choir Room. On Wednesday 9th January the Church will be open to visitors as normal. Thursday Communion will take place on Thursday 10th; Lunchtime Reflexions returns on Thursday 17th January.

Smell

During the repairs, wood will be treated with a chemical which has an unpleasant but non-toxic smell. Notice will be given when this process will take place.

Floor Covering

Once the floor is repaired a replacement, hardwearing grey carpet will be laid across the whole of the front of the nave. Notice of dates affected will be given nearer the time.

Parking

We will have access to only one parking space in the alley for the duration of the works. It is important that no one uses this space without prior arrangement with Carole Raw, Parish Administrator.

We are grateful to the trusts and individuals who have generously provided the funds for this essential work. Your understanding during the inevitable disruption will also be much appreciated.

Alan Garrow, Vicar of St Peter's

The Uncertainty of a Shepherd Boy

His father had taught him that great men foretold of a King who would live in a castle of gold;
who would favour their people and ask them to feast,
and he'd punish their foes; all the sinners not least.

Well he stood on the hill in the dark and the cold,
but he saw no great King, decked in jewels and gold;
so he followed a friend to a crude cattle shed,
where a manger of hay had been used as a bed.

The snow fell and wind howled and rattled the door,
and the cattle lowed softly as they knelt in the straw.
Did his friends speak the truth? Did he hear angels sing?
could this small, fragile infant be Israel's King?

The Collect for the Third Sunday of Advent

O Lord Jesus Christ, who at your first coming sent your messenger to prepare your way before you: grant that the ministers and stewards of your mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready your way by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at your second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in your sight;
for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

God for whom we watch and wait, you sent John the Baptist to prepare the way of your Son: give us courage to speak the truth, to hunger for justice, and to suffer for the cause of right, with Jesus Christ our Lord.
