World Cycling Championships and life at St Peter's

The lorries have moved into town; the imminence of the World Cycling Championships is making itself felt. We are all aware that there will be a lot of unusual activity over the next few weeks – and some unpredictability along with that, no doubt. As far as life at St Peter's is concerned, here is what we have planned.

During the days of the actual races 21st - 29th September, we plan to be open every day as usual – with a café, bookstall, and the Bath Abbey Diptychs exhibition. We will also be providing a base for a team giving away copies of the New Testament. We are expecting very large numbers of visitors, so if you are able to give some time to help, that will be much appreciated (please tell our Administrator, Carole Raw, one of the Clergy, or Dan Brewer, who is running the bookstall). Please also pray for the event – for safety and smooth running for the organisers, for the shops and businesses affected, and for the churches' united service and witness around the event.

Wesley Chapel will be closed for worship during this period, so we have extended a welcome to their congregation, who so generously hosted us during the 2012 building works. Their minister, Ben Clowes, will preach at the 9.30 am Family Communion on Sunday 22nd September. There will be no Tuesday Healing Service on 24th September or Thursday Holy Communion on 26th September. Otherwise everything will be completely normal!

Alan Garrow (Vicar of St Peter's)

Sunday Lunch Club Meets Today!

It is open to everyone and there's no need to book or bring anything – although donations towards the cost will, of course, be very welcome! Lunch today will be served at 1:00 pm. Please speak to Hannah Beck (07503 186455) or Yvonne Dawes (07960 779381) if you need to know more.

Men's Breakfast at St Peter's

Saturday 21st September 2019

Beginning with Morning Prayers at 8:00 am for those who wish to take part, and breakfast from 8:30 to 9:00 am, followed by an informal discussion session in The Gallery for perhaps 30 minutes or so. Please email Bryn Heapy if you are planning to come: brynsusie@hotmail.com or text him on 07561 889076.

Volunteering at Harrogate Fair Trade Shop, St Peter's Church

We are a fair trade charity whose aim is to help some of the poorest people in the world overcome poverty by providing a market for their fantastic products. Ours is a world in which many of the poorest have the balance of power tilted against them in a way that makes their lives precarious and prevents them from realising their potential. We recognise that this is an injustice which we in richer countries benefit from and so we aim to play our part in the fair trade movement with humility and understanding.

We're looking for volunteers who share our vision and are enthusiastic about what we do, and who are able to run a regular two hour shift in the shop, once a week or once a fortnight. You don't need to have worked in a shop before as we'll give you training but we do need people who are good at chatting to customers and happy to let them know a bit about fair trade. Any other skills would be welcome too!

If you can't commit to a regular slot or running a shift on your own isn't for you, do come and join our Advent Volunteering Scheme. We double in size for our Christmas shop in November and December and we need a second person on as many shifts as possible. Even just a couple of shifts over that period are really useful and it's a great way to give a little back in this busy period. If you'd like to know more contact Vicky Wild on harrogatefairtradeshop@hotmail.com.

It's Film Night at St Peter's Evening Fellowship!

In The Scarlet and the Black, Gregory Peck plays Monsignor Hugh O'Flaherty, a real-life cleric at the Vatican who rescued thousands of escaped POWs from the Gestapo. Christopher Plummer co-stars as the Gestapo officer who tries to catch O'Flaherty in the act. Come and enjoy this inspiring film at the next meeting of St Peter's Evening Fellowship on Thursday 3rd October starting at 7:00 pm.

A message from Harrogate School of Theology & Mission

We have recently had further information about potential travel problems in Harrogate due to the anticipated scale of the Cycling World Championships and have reluctantly decided to POSTPONE our opening lecture with Elaine Storkey scheduled for 28th September. The good news is that Elaine Storkey has agreed to join us later in the season instead. Details will be sent out very soon.

Creationtide 2019: biodiversity, God's web of life

Cleaning local waterways is an important way to protect the creatures that live in them. 71% of the Earth's surface is covered by water, and pollution and waste can have a devastating effect on the many species that depend on clean water. This year International Coastal Cleanup Day is on Saturday 21st September – hundreds of thousands of volunteers around the world will be collecting rubbish around lakes, rivers and on beaches.

Find an event in Yorkshire at www.oceanconservancy.org. - there are cleanups planned all along our coast from Hornsea up to Robin Hood's Bay.

Christians join climate change protest in Leeds

On 15th July Extinction Rebellion activists drove a boat onto Victoria Bridge in Leeds city centre, closing off the road to cars. Their message was simple: the UK government needs to act now to prevent the climate crisis from getting even worse. The Revd Jon Swale, the Revd Ruth Newton (pictured here in front of the boat) and several other Christians decided to join them – find out why at www.leeds.anglican.org/environment/campaign

Young people, inspired by teenager Greta Thunberg, are asking adults around the world to join them on a Global Climate Strike on 20th September: www.theguardian.com/environment

Refreshments are served after each of our Sunday morning services from the kitchen area at the front of Church. Please come and join us.
