'Thank you' every volunteer

There's always something going on at St Peter's ... and that's thanks to the many teams of volunteers that enable good things to happen every day. During the past few days there have been extra levels of activity because of the UCI World Cycling Championships, with the need for yet more volunteers. So, a huge 'thank you' to everyone who has given extra time this week – many of whom already do so generously throughout the year – to help with cleaning, managing the bookstall, stewarding the exhibition, running the café, and generally being available to welcome visitors from Harrogate to Holland and Knaresborough to New Zealand.

Today is the last day that we plan to exhibit the Bath Abbey Diptychs. If you've not had a chance to spend time with them yet, then do take the opportunity to do so before you leave today. They are an inspiring example of how one woman's single-minded devotion can result in something beautiful for God.

This week has shown us what it looks like when a town, and a culture, is re-orientated around a single goal – to ride a bike as fast as is humanly possible. What would it look like if our town, and our culture, were re-orientated around the single goal of loving God and neighbour with the same wholehearted energy and commitment?

Alan Garrow, Vicar of St Peter's

The heroic story of Father Hugh O'Flaherty

In Rome during the Second World War, a white line was painted along the streets near the Vatican on the orders of Obersturmbannführer Herbert Kappler, the head of the Gestapo in Rome. It marked the point where the Holy See's authority ended and Nazi rule began. During the occupation Hugh O'Flaherty, an Irish priest working at the Vatican, outwitted Kappler and ran safehouses and an escape route for Allied servicemen and Jewish civilians – he helped over 6,500 people reach safety. He succeeded in evading capture and part of his story and his intriguing relationship with Kappler are told in the film The Scarlet and the Black, which will be shown at St Peter's Fellowship's Film Night on 3rd October starting at 7:00 pm.

Welcome, Inclusion, Respect

It has taken St Peter's some years to act upon a document from the Diocese of Leeds suggesting ways to ensure that our Church is truly open to all. Do we have Open Hearts, Open Minds, an Open Church? Well perhaps, but not always. Despite our best intentions some people, those with physical or mental health issues, may feel excluded and unwanted.

In March 2019 the PCC met to discuss a summary of the document and agreed three priorities - how to improve the physical body of the building, our means of communication and our overall approach and attitudes.

A small group was formed and three meetings have taken place. At the first we looked at positive evidence of inclusivity and then at areas that needed work; from there we highlighted those problem areas and they became our first priorities. We are investigating, among other things: how to improve our accessible WC; the design and placement of external signage; the sound system and the availability of large print for all of our written communication. Once a month an article, written by a member of our congregation, will be printed in the Weekly News helping, not just to raise awareness, but also to widen the debate.

Christine Mc Manus, Co-ordinator of the Welcome, Inclusion, Respect Group

We celebrate Harvest next Sunday, 6th October

This year St Peter's Church is supporting the Christian Aid Season for Change Harvest Appeal with a church collection. We do still plan to send out small parcels to people who are housebound – so gifts of flowers or small houseplants, chocolates and biscuits will be most welcome. We will also need help with packing up these parcels on Tuesday 8th October at 9:00 am – with drivers needed on the same day to make the deliveries. If you are able to help please contact our Churchwarden, Patricia Stableford, by email at jpst39@gmail.com or by telephone on 01423 526767 for further details as to when drivers will be needed.

Booking for Ripon Summer Camp 2020 opens this week!

As you can see Chris Clayton, our curate, had a wonderful time at this year's Summer Camp held at Ripon Grammar School, a CPAS Ventures Summer Camp that's been running since 2002. Although it's called a camp, there are no tents involved - everyone sleeps in dormitories that house up to 12 people. There is also an indoor swimming pool, two huge gyms and fantastic grounds for all sorts of activities. They go off site too for things like kayaking, high ropes and the yearly trip to Lightwater Valley. Chris says, "As a leader I got a lot out of it, more than I thought I would. Zander, Daniel and Immy all thoroughly enjoyed it and I would recommend that you chat to them about their experience. We will be going again this coming Summer to Ripon 1, which is 25th July to 1st August 2020, booking opens on the 1st October and places run out fast."

There are more pictures of this year's Ripon Venture on their facebook page. If you want more information or to book your place speak to Chris (chris.clayton@leeds.anglican.org) or visit www.riponventure.co.uk.
